Digital Conversion Liability Waiver Form

Thank you for using the Family History Preservation Lab digitization service in the Local History and Genealogy Department at Mount Clemens Public Library. Because physical media items wear with use and degrade over time, there is always risk of accident or damage to personal film reels, DVDs, VHS tapes, film negatives, slide film, audio cassettes, and photograph prints. Please fill out the form below stating the risk involved is understood and release the Library and its employees from any liability, losses, or damages incurred if personal materials become damaged during the process.

I, _____ (print name) agree to assume the risk to my personal property and release Mount Clemens Public Library and its employees from any liability should my personal property be inadvertently damaged through the use of any of the Library's equipment and/or services.

Additionally, the duplication of copyrighted material is unlawful. Patrons are only allowed to digitize personal, home materials. Duplicating copyrighted material without the copyright owner's permission is illegal and can result in civil and criminal penalties. Mount Clemens Public Library and its employees are not liable for patrons breaking this rule, the patron retains that liability if they break the Library's rule.

I, _____ (print name) agree that by using the digitization equipment at the Library, I will not duplicate copyrighted material.
